Almost A Miracle.

One of the most startling changes ever seen in any man, according to W. B. Holsclaw, Clarendon, Tex., was effected years ago in his brother. "He had such a dreadful cough," he writes, "that all our family thought he was going into consumption, but he began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, and was completely cured by ten bottles. Now he is sound and well and weighs 218 lbs. For many years our family has used this wonderful remedy for Coughs and Colds with excellent results." It's quick, safe, reliable and guaranteed. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottle free at A. I. Druggists. Advertisement.

AFTER LONG YEARS!

At Einsiedeln, in the canton of Schwytz—the Swiss Lourdes—a remarkable marriage took place in the principal church. In 1870 a wealthy Swiss couple living in the neighborhood became engaged, but, on the breaking out of war between France and Germany, the fiance left Switzerland to serve under the French flag. The couple then drifted apart for the ensuing 42 years, and, strangely enough, each married three times during this period, the husband losing three wives by death and the wife three husbands.

The Danger After Grip

lies often in a run-down system. Weakness, nervousness, lack of appetite, energy and ambition, with disordered liver and kidneys often follow an attack of this wretched disease. The greatest need then is Electric Bitters, the glorious tonic, blood purifier and regulator of stomach, liver and kidneys. Thousands have proved that they wonderfully strengthen the nerves, build up the system and restore to health and good spirits after an attack of Grip. If suffering, try them. Only 50 cents. Sold and perfect satisfaction guaranteed by All Druggists. Advertisement.

Useless Worrying.

An old author has remarked that there are two things which it does no good to worry about—what you can help, and what you can't help. The latter, because fretting won't help the matter; and in the former, because it is your duty to go and help it, without fretting.

Dread Of An Operation.

N. Manchester, Ind.—Mrs. Eva Bashore, of this place, says: "I suffered female misery of every description. Two doctors attended me and advised an operation. I lost weight until I weighed only ninety pounds. I dreaded an operation and instead began to take Cardui. In a short time I gained 25 pounds, and feel as well as I ever did. Cardui is today used in thousands of homes, where it relieves pain and brings back strength and ambition. It is a woman's medicine, for woman's ailments and you are urged to try it for your trouble. Ask your druggist. He will tell you about Cardui. Advertisement.

"The Wizard of Wiseland" is the new musical comedy extravaganza that has been playing to crowded houses everywhere and meeting with enthusiastic approval from all. The cast is composed of the very cleverest comedians and comedienne on the stage, ably supported by a well trained chorus. One of the best animal actors in the world impersonates a huge lion. The music is new and the songs are the best and latest, and are staged with great care under the personal supervision of the composers. Handsome scenery and effects help to make the "Wizard of Wiseland" the most popular musical show on the road today. At Holland's Opera House Oct. 18 h. Advertisement.

SOME DIFFERENCE.

Mr. Croker-King, the well-known actor, tells of an amusing incident of a theatrical tour. A certain town was "billed" for two great rival productions. On the arrival of the train which brought both companies a certain man, bound on business, approached one of the company as he stepped out of a first-class compartment, and, politely raising his hat, said, in all sincerity: "Bey pardon, sir, but are you 'The Darling of the Gods,' or 'The Greatest Scoundrel Living'?"

Puts End To Bad Habit

Things never look bright to one with "the blues." Ten to one the trouble is a sluggish liver, filling the system with bilious poison, that Dr. King's New Life Pills would expel. Try them. Let the joy of better feelings end "the blues." Best for stomach, liver and kidneys. 25 cts. Advertisement.

A Lead Pencil Danger.

In the United States the danger of putting pencils in the mouth has long been recognized, and in all the schools every precaution is taken to prevent the interchange of pencils as well as the moistening of them with the lips. A great many children and even their elders, who ought to know better, persist in putting pencils in their mouth regardless of the risk they run.

A Matter of Assurance.

"Some of your speeches," said the cynical friend, "make me think of a mathematical marvel I once knew." "In what way?" "He would dispose of any problem you gave him. Nobody in the crowd was able to say whether he got the right answer, and it really didn't seem to make much difference, anyhow."

When baby suffers with croup, apply and give Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil at once. Safe for children. A little goes a long way. 25c and 50c. At all drug stores. Advertisement.

RAREST OF OLD VINTAGES

It is stated that Pierpont Morgan was unable recently to procure a bottle of the most ancient wine in Germany, although he offered a large sum for it. The wine is the famous Rosenwein (rose wine) and is stored in the rathskeller of the City hall of Bremen.

In 1624 the city of Bremen bought and put away a barrel of Rosenwein which was even then considered the noblest and finest of all Rhine wines. The barrel cost $50. What the wine is worth now, reckoning the cost at compound interest for three centuries, has been made the subject of various fantastic calculations.

It is only upon rare occasions that the officials of Bremen permit the drawing of what is considered the city's greatest treasure. About fifty bottles of the wine is left in the barrel and even that is no longer absolutely the original 1624 wine, for whenever any of the wine is drawn it is replaced from one of the "twelve apostles"—the twelve barrels in the rathskeller, which contain the next oldest wine in Germany.

The last considerable withdrawal from the barrel was in August, 1824, when twelve bottles of the precious fluid were sent to Goethe on the occasion of his seventy-fifth birthday.

ITS MADE THE BUTT OF CRUEL JOKES AND MANY OF THEM TOO AND SO I BUTT THE JOKER WHEN I SEE ONE. WOULDNT YOU?

HIS CAMPAIGN FUND.

Logically, if large expenditures at and before primary elections are an evil, small ones approach political blessedness and deserve approving publicity.

Salute, then Sergt. Charles C. Campbell of Sandusky, O., for conspicuous gallantry in preserving both his financial integrity and his sense of humor through a recent unsuccessful campaign for re-election to his county central committee. As a statement of campaign expenses the sergeant filed the following report:

"To four glasses of beer at five cents each, 20 cents.

"To one glass of beer for a fellow who said he carried the precinct in his pocket, although the returns prove that he was mistaken, five cents.

"Total, 25 cents."—Collier's Weekly.

WHO WON?

A story of the parade of woman suffragists is being told around the various headquarters of the "votes for women" clan. One of the editors of a New York morning paper which is decidedly "anti," has a young wife who is very much "pro." She announced that she intended to parade. He vetoed the proposition absolutely, and averred that if Mrs. Editor dared to march he would forcibly remove her from the ranks. Determined to show her sympathy with "the cause," but not wanting to disregard her husband's wishes, she dressed in proper suffragist colors and badges and paraded—along the sidewalks from the start to the finish of the procession. Who won?—New York Tribune.

FRIENDLY ADVICE.

The Wood street man had a grouch on. "What's the matter?" inquired the Smithfield street man. "You don't care a rap!" "Oh, cheer up. What's wrong?" "Life is a burden to me." "Take an interest in something. Have an avocation. Take up golf." "Aw, life ain't worth living." "Then take up aviation."

ITS LOCALITY.

"Is the suit you were bringing still in a state of statu quo?" "No; it's in the state of New Jersey."
